

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Attorney Charles F. Hille given 120 days in jail for contempt of court by Judge Kersten. Sentence grew out of alleged attempt to "fix" case.

Peter Trainer, 22, Pittsburgh, fell eight stories while wrecking Chicago Opera House. Slipped down chute. Severely injured.

Bodies of William Cannell and William Baker found in lake. Men were drowned in crib disaster Feb. 5.

Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., son of former president, here with wife.

Terrior owned by Frank Shepard, proprietor of saloon, 2953 E. 92d st., swallowed saloon license. Permit issued to operate dramshop until duplicate license is issued.

Ignatz Bukoski, Detroit, fired three shots at self in Madison Hotel. Hospital.

Jacques Lait wants replevin to recover $450 auto. Claims it is illegally held on judgment issued against former owner.

James S. McInerney to sue Ald. Albert Tearney for selling liquor to policewomen.

Lillian Stevens, defender of houseboat on Calumet river, found insane.

Seven taken in raid on Charles Baranov's clothing store, 16 S. Canal st., when Harry Weiss complained of losing $450 at poker.

Health committee of city council to take up recommendations of vice commission Thursday.

Council urged to improve outlying district. West End Pullerton Avenue Improvement Ass'n indignant over condition of lighting and streets.

Ald. Hugo Krause against Curran commission. Claims charity trust has been hurt by quiz. Asserts constructive measures are better than material relief.

Chief Gleason filed charges against Harry L. Hudson, examiner of chauffeurs, for issuing licenses to incompetents, and William B. Begley, clerk, for conducting an employment agency.

Ald. Frank McDermott of 29th ward acquitted on charge of selling liquor to John Flannely, minor.

Baldwin Roeslin, 2350 Washington Blvd., met two strangers. Gave $1,500 bond for job at Blackstone Hotel. Stung.

Harry Bernstien, garment manufacturer, wants court order to restrain Chicago Cloak Makers' Union from picketing strike-bound shop.

Jackson Park beach to go. Commissioners plan substitute at 55th st.

Class fights must stop at Proviso High School. Expulsion threatened combatants.

William O'Neil, 5764 Lafayette av., fell from ladder. Dead.

Divorce bureau to seek review of Ebron divorce. Mrs. Francis Ebron claims divorce was obtained without her knowledge.

Alexander B. Scully, president of Scully Iron & Steel Co., dead.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools, against erection of Northwest Side normal school. Suggests dormitory near present school for students from outlying districts.

Illinois Press Association adjourned after harmony meet. Demand legislation to permit exchange of newspaper space for railroad passes.

Maurice and Philip Danaher held to grand jury in connection with murder of Michael Smiley.

Robert Canty, Edward Meyers and William Enser escaped from Judge Bowles' "bull pen" at City Hall. Climbed out of window, skirted cornice on eleventh floor and escaped over roof through County Building.

Turnock Medical Co., 1770 Berceau av., barred from mails. Alleged to have defrauded public of $350,000.

Aldermen and School Board clashed over school site report. Attack on Congressman Sabath stopped after warm debate.

Herbert Esbertin, 14, 1710 N. Halsted st., played with gun. Laughing.